Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Sunday 19 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Most staying dry. Brightness best in west. Fog patches.

Today:
Early fog patches, widespread and lingering in Central Belt. A dry day for most, with only a few drizzly showers in the far north and east. Best of the bright and sunny spells across western areas. Winds light and variable.

Tonight:
Another dry night with cloud quite extensive across the east and in Central Belt. Clear spells in west combining with light winds to allow a widespread frost here come dawn.

Monday:
Rather cloudy in Central Belt and around eastern districts, perhaps with a few light drizzly showers cropping up. However most dry with bright and sunny spells widespread in the west.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Tuesday and Wednesday mainly dry with brighter spells, however some showers appear in north. Easterly winds freshening Thursday as rainbands spread from south, possibly turning wintry to quite low levels.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.